EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

1. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with David Feigenbaum on 04/27/2006.
2. The application has been amended as follows:

In the claims:

Cancel claims 9-33.

(End of Examiner's Amendment)

Examiner's Statement of Reason for Allowance

3. Claims 1 and 3-8 are allowed.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The prior art of record teaches various passive acoustic radiators thereon, for example U.S. patent number 6,782,112. However, the prior art of record fails to show claim 1, a first acoustic driver and a second acoustic driver, each having a first radiating surface, mounted so that said first radiating surfaces face said enclosure interior volume; a first passive radiator and a second passive radiator, each having a radiating element having two opposing surfaces, mounted in said module so that one of said surfaces faces said cavity; and a baffle structure in said enclosure, between a first chamber comprising said first acoustic driver and said first passive radiator and a second chamber comprising said second acoustic driver and said second passive radiator and in combination with all the limitation of claim 1; and claim 3, wherein said first passive radiator and said second passive radiator are positioned so that said first passive radiator intended direction of motion and said second passive radiator intended direction of motion are substantially parallel and wherein said first passive radiator vibratile element and said second passive vibratile passive element are noncoplanar, and wherein said module is constructed and arranged to be insertable in a first aperture in an acoustic enclosure enclosing an interior volume so that said first passive radiator second surface faces said interior volume and so that said second passive radiator second surface faces said interior volume and in combination with all the limitation of claim 3.

4. Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
